

//

Like a Construction Project, people need a strong and supportive Foundation to build their career upon, an apprenticeship with CoTrain can provide this and help find your dream job

//

Mark Pope
Business Development & Apprenticeships Manager

Why do the CoTrain apprenticeship?

Free College Education

First steps in your career and references for successful future

Valuable Industry Experience for your CV

Real Life Training with Industry Approved Qualifications

Earn while you Learn

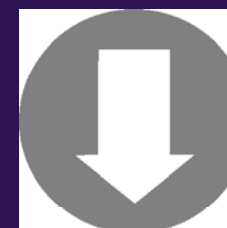

Skills and Knowledge for Life

Extra Support from CoTrain

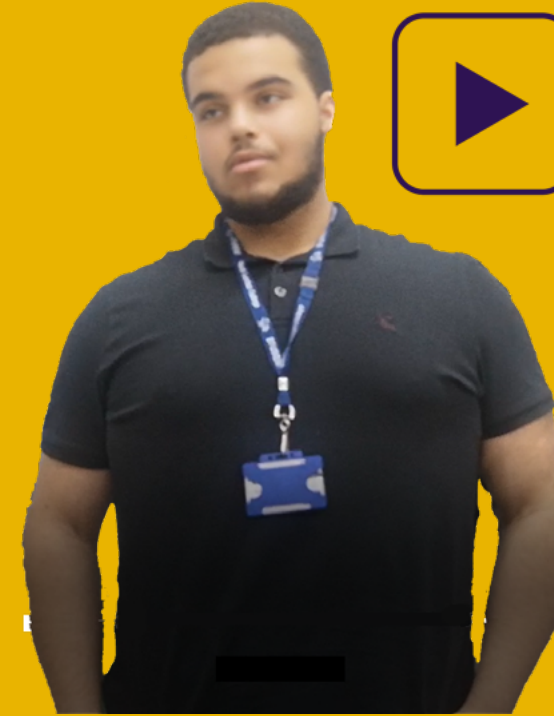

Want to know how it's happening?

Hannah Fleming,
CoTrain Carpentry Apprentice

Hannah is talking about her recent work at the Houdini Escape Room and how apprenticeship helped her with her skills and confidence.

Kyron Soares,
Interior Systems and Drylining
Apprentice

Hear Kyron talking about the benefits he's enjoying within his apprenticeship experience.

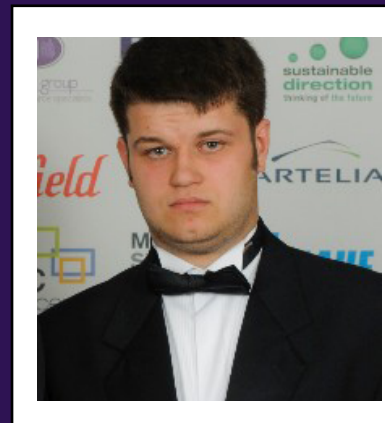

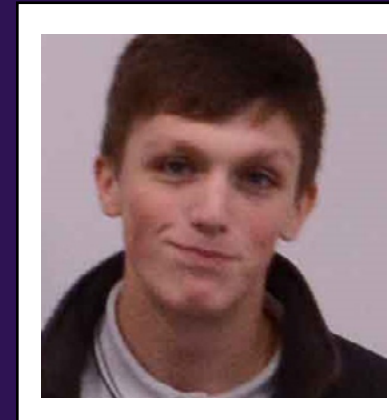

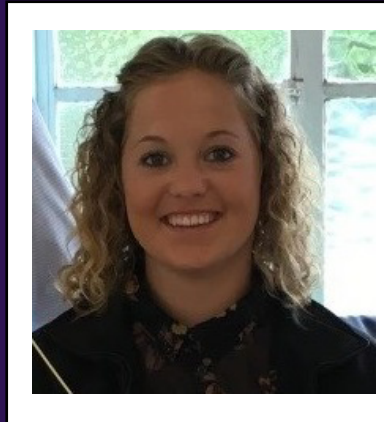

Harvey Pengelly,
Interior Systems Apprentice

Harvey is sharing his apprenticeship experience and what he enjoys the most.

What qualifications and job positions I can get in the future?

Site Carpentry

Business Administrator

Bricklaying

Fitted Interiors

Quantity Surveyor

Painting & Decorating

Constructing Site Manager

What should I start with?

1

Find our job vacancies

2

Find out how to apply

3

Contact us if you have any questions

Are you a Contractor in the construction industry?

4

Prepare your application

5

Take an interview

Good luck!

Information for Contractors

CoTrain Partners

How It Works Video

CoTrain is delivered by SECBE

100 Longwater Avenue, Reading, RG2 6GP | Company No: 5338703. VAT No: 861 5336 24 | info@secbe.org.uk

